A big surprise was sprung on basebail crunks yesterday when it was announced that Rusie, Fuller and Tieruan, of the New York Cittle, had been served with notices of rel ase. The action is the result of the reliable of the fire players to accept a cut in salary. President Day is responsible for the move. His reasons for the precedure are more those of principle than of economy. The Frestdent argued—and rightly, too—that t would be unsair to the other players not to have the reduction in wages extend to all. The release of the three men does not necessarily mean that they will not play here next season. They may have to come to terms or not play ball.
